

“The Best Possible Experience”
2019 Garden Docent Training
Hillwood Estate, Museum & Gardens

February 25 Rose Garden, Lunar Lawn, Friendship Walk & Four Seasons Overlook, and Putting Green, and Interpretive Frameworks Continued

Objectives

After completing this session of the training program, participants will be better able to:

1. Discuss the key ideas distilled from the lecture and readings on the Rose Garden, Lunar Lawn, Friendship Walk & Four Seasons Overlook, and Putting Green;
2. Demonstrate their understanding of how frameworks can be used for organizing interpretive ideas about a garden object.

- I. Introduction
- II. Distillation of lecture and readings about the gardens
  - A. What are the key points about each garden related to Design, Features, and Marjorie Post/Museum Today?
  - B. What are the big ideas you want visitors to come away with for each room?
- III. Discuss object-based learning model homework
  - A. Does it resonate?
  - B. What was easy?
  - C. What was challenging?
  - D. Any last questions or comments?
- IV. Step back
  - A. What do you know now that you didn't know when we started?
  - B. Did we meet the objectives?
- V. Assignment: readings due for March 4 workshop