

Mansion Display Update: Second Floor Library

April 22, 2026

On Tuesday, April 22, the collections team swapped out a painting in the second floor library in preparation for the upcoming exhibition, Interwoven: A Tradition of Textiles, on view in the Adirondack building from June 6, 2026-January 3, 2027. See below for information on the object that was temporarily removed and the painting that was installed in its place.

Object Removed for Special Exhibition

Object	Description	Original Location	New Location
	Portrait of Marjorie Merriweather Post Frank O. Salisbury (British, 1874-1962) 1942-1946 Oil painting Bequest of Marjorie Merriweather Post, 1973 (51.142)	Second Floor Library	Adirondack Building (Interwoven exhibition)

Object Installed in Second Floor Library

Object	Description	Location
	Divided Attention Arthur John Elsley (British, 1860-1952) 1878-1904 Oil on canvas Gift of General Foods, 1978 (51.181)	Second Floor Library