

Mansion Display Updates: Objects Removed for Photography

June 29, 2026

Beginning Monday, June 29, the collections team will temporarily remove a number of objects throughout the mansion for an upcoming photography project. The list below is not exhaustive and features notable objects that will be removed in the coming weeks, and those that will be installed in their place.

All objects will be returned to the mansion at the end of August once the photography has been completed. Please note that the pieces to be removed are subject to change.
